Lead the team yourself, or have one of us guide the way. Our trained coaches and Birkman specialists can help set up a strategic year plan for your team. Move your team intentionally and effectively through the year to build successful internal culture. We help build a plan to focus month's on different topics like trust, accountability, management style, etc.

BUILT FROM EXPERIENCE

Stop Guessing for Teams (SGT) was built by leadership mentor and coach, Dave Phillips. Premierehire has used SGT since inception and has helped hundreds of leaders and teams integrate SGT to help increase mutual trust and respect. Our clients have also used SGT to accelerate onboarding a new leader and building camaraderie in a new team.
